

A Very Special Thank You to 2015 AAEOY – Los Angeles

YC Yiu

Award Recipient, Lockheed Martin Space Systems Company

I salute you for making this event so successful, all on volunteer basis. Your hard work is very much appreciated by all, and please takes this as an exceptional accomplishment; especially the standard of comparison is with the Oscar the week before. My wife and I felt honored and enjoyed all the events very much.

I was assured by the professional photographer that the photos will be available for download after the event. Consequently, I did not take photos at the reception and award ceremony as I was quite busy at the event. Please let me know how I can get access to the photos. Also, about the Jurassic Park theme song – I cannot recall I heard the music playing as I was on a roll to finish my “2-minute” speech. It will be nice if I can get access to and review the clip, if it was ever recorded. I understand these photos or clips are of no general interest but to the participants.

Again, I congratulate your success in this monumental undertaking to the benefit of the Asian American community. 謝謝！

Hopefully, you were able to get some sleep on Sunday after such a wonderful event. The attendees from Lockheed Martin and Sandia National Laboratories are still smiling. It was truly lovely.

Thank you very much. The AAEOY event was very special for us. Dr. Shang is a very humble person but he was very exciting to receiving this award. This event was one of the best that I have attended. Our Technical Director was very excited to talk with us on Monday about how the ceremony went. He was very disappointed that he could not attend. Will we receive a video and photos of Dr. Shang?

I am so grateful to have your kindly support, without you, we may not be there.

I cannot thank you and your team enough for hosting a world class event! It was an honor to be part of and we definitely walked away with lifetime memories. Thank you again.

First let me express my sincere gratitude, on behalf of my family and myself, for the hospitality extended to us prior to and on the day of the awards ceremony. Having organized a few technical conferences myself, I know how hard it is to organize an event like this and make it such a grand success. I look forward to downloading some of the photos when they are made available on the website.

Thank you all for the job well done.

Award Recipient, The Boeing Company

Everything was excellent and fantastic.

I had basically two items for improvements. One is the cultural event can use one more hour. Not your fault, but it was too rushed. The other was that the band music was way too loud in the banquet. That took away valuable opportunity for networking and conversation.

Thanks again for everything!
